

Internet Radio Advertising

Rate: Contact for Availability and Rates

Business Television Network is in the business of promoting Businesses directly to the potential Consumers of your products and services.

Internet radio offers distribution potentials on a similar scale to satellite radio. With an attractive national and international reach, internet radio allows advertisers the opportunity to attract business on an unprecedented global scale.

Locations

The launch date for Business Television Network radio station is scheduled for June 2008. Our main broadcast studio is to be located at our corporate offices.

Spot advertising is available in standard time segments. In addition the radio equivalent to product placement as a radio program dedicated to a particular product, company or service is also available. Please send a contact form email for availability.

Specifications:

- Ad Clips must be submitted electronically to ca@businesstelevisionnetwork.com.
- Acceptable format is fully edited clip timed to; :15, :30, :45, or :60 seconds in length.
- Acceptable files are .wav, and .mp3,

All submissions are reviewed for content and program compatibility prior to insertion.